AGREEMENT

The peace initiative “Ad Pacem servandam – For peace and against war” and the competent authorities of the three theological faculties in Bosnia and Herzegovina (Catholic Faculty of Theology, Faculty of Islamic Studies, and Orthodox Theological Faculty of Saint Basil of Ostrog) with the following agreement declare:

“Ad Pacem servandam” will award scholarships to three Master’s students over the course of one academic year (two semesters) for ‘Interreligious Studies and Peacebuilding’. The scholarship programme will cover half of their tuition fees.

In the event that this course is not offered in Sarajevo for one year, but only the two-week summer school ‘Interreligious Studies and Peacebuilding’, “Ad Pacem servandam” will cover half the participation fees of three financially disadvantaged students.

The scholarship programme, a key initiative of “Ad Pacem servandam”, is a concrete expression of its commitment to the ongoing peace process in Bosnia and Herzegovina. It is a symbol of solidarity with the tireless efforts of many people in this country to build a peaceful Europe.

The funds will be transferred to the bank account of the Catholic Faculty of Sarajevo.

This project, which is extended each year by a written request from the Faculties of Theology at the University of Sarajevo, enables the scholarships to be renewed.

The competent authorities of the three Theological Faculties will jointly decide who will be the recipients of the scholarship. They must also agree that the biographies and letters of motivation of the scholarship holders will be published on the website of the Initiative for Peace and Against War “Ad Pacem servandam” (<https://adpacem.org>).

Both parties can cancel this agreement in writing at any time by the spring of the civil year.
